

Add Victorian flare to your special day by choosing the 1897 Poe House as the setting for an outdoor wedding! The fully restored Victorian home of E.A. Poe, a Fayetteville brick maker, provides a glimpse of early twentieth-century life and a romantic setting that you won't find anywhere else.

J. Christina Photography

Natural and Cultural Resources

The Museum of the Cape Fear Historical Complex consists of a NC southeast regional history museum, the 1897 Poe House, and Arsenal Park.

To book your event or for more information contact Megan Maxwell at (910) 500-4244 or by email megan.maxwell@ncdcr.gov.

Weddings at the 1897 Poe House

J. Christina Photography

Museum of the Cape Fear
Historical Complex
801 Arsenal Avenue
Fayetteville, NC 28305
(910) 500-4240

A Historic Setting for Your Historic Occasion

The 1897 Poe House was home to the E. A. Poe family from 1897 until 1988. He is not the famous Edgar Allan Poe, our Mr. Poe was a brick maker and businessman. He lived here with his wife, Josephine, and their eight children. The house was purchased by the State of North Carolina from Miss Elizabeth "Lillie" Winslow Poe, daughter of E.A. and Josephine Poe, in 1987. It was restored to its 1897 appearance and opened to the public in 1998 as a historic house museum. Tours of the house are offered Tues-Fri at 11:00, 1:00, & 3:00; Saturday on the hour from 10:00-4:00; and Sunday on the hour from 1:00-4:00. Admission is free.

Faith Teasley Photography

Hundred year old magnolias, camellias, heritage roses, and seasonal blooms add to the romance of the Poe House garden.

Things to Note

- * The Poe House is an outdoor venue. There are no indoor facilities available.
- * One dressing room available with select packages.
- * We do not have catering facilities.
- * We provide the site only. All other items are the responsibility of the party.

Rental Rates

- * Our rental rates are based on the number of guests and the amount of time reserved. Packages currently range from $250 to $1,250.
- * Contact us for the most up to date information and a personalized wedding consultation.

